Solution Café

Appetiser

- A round of sharing about what has happened to you in the last 36 hours that you are particularly happy about.

Main course

- Would you like some fresh ideas for a topic of yours? Regarding work, family, yourself... If you have chosen a topic, raise your hand and let's get started.
- Listeners ask questions from the card set and give the gift of listening. When enough new things have arisen, simply say so.

Dessert

- A round of everybody sharing about what inspiration they have gained from this conversation.

The Appetiser

What has happened to you within the last 36 hours that you are particularly happy about?

The Main course – roles

Narrator (topic giver)

- Listen to the questions and answer them.
- If a question does not make sense to you, simply ask for a new one.

Listener

- Asks questions one at a time from the deck of cards.
- Pick another card if you get the question the previous person just asked.

Appreciative feedback

What impressed you about the narrator?

“Resource Gossip”

“Resource Gossip”

Listeners talk indirectly about the narrator/topic giver i.e.:

"I was impressed that s/he..."

"I particularly liked the fact that s/he..."

"I think s/he is particularly good at..."

The Dessert
